
People in business

Staff Reports

Thursday, January 6, 2011

Estella Mayhue-Greer, Mid-South Food Bank incoming president and CEO, has been elected to the Feeding America National Council.

Dr. Ai Takeuchi has joined Memphis Veterinary Specialists and PetMed Emergency Center as the facility's first hospitalist.

Gregory Duckett, senior vice president and corporate counsel for Baptist Memorial Health Care, has been selected to serve as vice chairman of the Tennessee Board of Regents.

The following attorneys with Butler, Snow, O'Mara, Stevens & Cannada have been selected for Mid-South Super Lawyers: James E. Bailey III, Michael P. Coury, Charles R. Crawford, Charles C. Harrell, Frank M. Holbrook, David P. Jaqua, Randall D. Noel and Virginia B. Wilson.

Letitia Robertson has joined Bridge Builders as vice president.

AFRAM Corporation has been selected for the 2010 Best in Memphis Award in the Consulting Engineers category by the U.S. Local Business Association.

© 2012 Scripps Newspaper Group — Online