

People in business

Staff Reports

Wednesday, April 25, 2012

Tami Shidler has joined Where The Heart Is as director of nursing of home health care services.

Larry Franck, a retired partner of Butler, Snow, O'Mara, Stevens & Cannada PLLC, has been inducted into the University of Mississippi Law Alumni Hall of Fame.

Robert O'Brien, executive vice president and chief operating officer with Calgon Carbon Corporation, has been elected to the board of directors for Buckman.

Dr. Richard Duszak of Mid-South Imaging and Therapeutics, has been recognized as visiting professor at Duke University and Virginia Commonwealth University, where he lectured on physician payment systems, value-based health care purchasing, and utilization management.

© 2012 Scripps Newspaper Group — Online