

ORGANIZATIONS

Junior League taps board of directors for 2012-13

By Sarah Williams

Special to My Life

The Junior League of Memphis announced the leaders who will serve on the organization's board of directors for 2012-2013. The board will lead operations for the JLM, one of Memphis' largest volunteer organizations partners.

Since its founding 90 years ago, the mission of the JLM has been to promote voluntarism, develop the potential of women and improve the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers.

Serving on the organization's board are:

President - Sally Pace, senior vice president of marketing and communications, FTN Financial

President-elect - Stephanie Simpson, assistant vice president, regional colleague resources director, Sedgwick Claims

Management Services Inc. Executive secretary/communications director - Amy Stack, sports marketing, ALSAC/St. Jude Children's Research Hospital

Treasurer - Betsy Brasher, vice president, First Tennessee Bank

Assistant treasurer - Sue Elle Zellich, financial planning and analysis manager, Buckeye Technologies

Advisory planning director - Ashley Tobias, community volunteer

Board member at large - Ginny Bozeman, attorney, The Hardison Law Firm

Community director external - Milandria King, tax and estate planning attorney, Sims Financial Group Inc.

Community director internal - Ginna Rauls, community volunteer

Internal development director - Cynthia Saatkamp, owner, Hemline Creative Marketing LLC

League attorney - Lauri Prather, director, Martin, Tate, Morrow & Marston PC

Fund development director - Melody McAnally, attorney, Butler Snow

Fund development assistant director - Brandy Johnson Ward, vice president, Harvestons Securities Inc.

Membership director - Rebecca Bush, compensation management analyst, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital

Membership assistant director - Kimberly Grantham, marketing manager, University of Memphis

Sustainer director - Lisa Mischke, social worker, ElderCare Consultants LLC

Training director - Darla Mayse, recruitment marketing specialist, So-dexo

Sarah Williams is marketing/public relations chairman for Junior League of Memphis.

