

ON THE MOVE

MOVES

► Stone, Avant & Daniels P.C., a Birmingham-based accounting firm, said Kelley Daniels has been promoted to president. Daniels has been a shareholder since 1999.

Stone, Avant & Daniels also said Eric Champion has been named a shareholder. Champion has been with the firm since 2006 and has 15 years of experience in public accounting.

The firm provides accounting and tax services to clients in the construction industry.

► Books-A-Million Inc. said Michael G. Rediker has been named corporate development analyst, responsible for identifying, analyzing and implementing strategic initiatives, including new business growth opportunities.

Rediker most recently worked for investment banking firm Paces Battle Group Inc., where he served bank and thrift clients. Before that, he worked in investment banking for Sterne Agee.

► Birmingham's Satellites Unlimited Inc. said Shawna Lamb has been named director of human resources, responsible for overseeing daily human resources operations for the regional service provider for Dish.

► Butler, Snow, O'Mara, Stevens & Cannada PLLC said Christopher S. Berdy has joined the law firm's Birmingham office.

Berdy joins Butler Snow's Commercial Litigation and Product Liability Groups.

His practice will focus on complex business and commercial disputes, business torts, product liability defense and personal injury defense.

► The Porter Capital Corp. said Gay Denny has joined the company as business development officer in St. Louis.

Denny will represent the Birmingham-based firm throughout the Midwest. She has 23 years of experience in the factoring and asset-based lending industry.

APPOINTMENTS

► Alabama Forever has named new members to its board of directors. They are: Cleve Gordon, senior account director, Payscape Advisors; Phillip Schilleci, director of corporate sales, Supreme Beverage Co.; and Michael Silinsky, chief financial officer, Birmingham Beverage Co.

Alabama Forever, created in response to the April 27, 2011, tornadoes, works closely with any Alabama community in need of volunteer assistance.

FURTHERMORE

► The Birmingham Business Alliance said Steven Ceulemans, its vice president of innovation and technology, has been awarded a fellowship within the National Academies in Washington, D.C. Ceulemans is only the third Alabama professional to participate in the program.

Ceulemans and 22 others from the U.S. and abroad were selected for the Christine Mirzayan Science & Technology Policy Graduate Fellowship Program. His fellowship assignment is with the Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, and he will support a study to assess the value of research in advancing national goals.

► The Birmingham-based Alabama Grocers Association has given Robbie Norman of Norman Foods its Retailer of the Year Award. Norman opened his first store in Thomasville in 2000 and now operates a half-dozen locations, including the Millbrook Food Outlet in Prattville.

► Andrea Brown of Birmingham was selected as one of 15 finalists from more than 170 designer entrants across the nation to compete for the opportunity to have their collections sold in select Belk Inc. department stores and on Belk.com. The 15 finalists will have a meeting with merchant teams and a special event today at Belk's Charlotte headquarters.

Steven Ceulemans

Robbie Norman

Shawna Lamb

Christopher S. Berdy

