Law: Personal Injury

YOU'VE SEEN THEIR BILLBOARDS, YOU'VE HEARD THEIR commercials, and you might have even used them to represent you in a Mid-South courtroom. These POWER PLAYERS are the ones Memphians enlist to petition on their behalf after an injury at work, an auto accident, a defective product, a slip and fall accident, or instance of medical malpractice. Personal injury attorneys are particularly knowledgeable in tort law and are as adept in the courtroom as they are in settling out of court. Some of their catchy slogans and not-so-subtle reminders can be witnessed around town, but each of these personal injury lawyers is as unique as his or her marketing, and each knows what it takes to make sure clients are taken care of when it comes to getting what they deserve.
