

EPILOGUE CLASS NOTES

'77

T.J. Arant, BA, has been installed as the 13th president of Friends University in Wichita, Kan. He previously served as executive vice president, provost and professor of literature at Mount Olive College in Mount Olive, N.C.

Margaret Callihan, BA, EMBA'04, chairman, president and CEO of SunTrust Bank, Southwest Florida, received the American Jewish Committee's Civic Achievement Award at a gala dinner in November 2012 in Sarasota, Fla. Previous Civic Achievement Award winners include President Jimmy Carter and Steven Spielberg.

Stephen P. Carson, BA, married Jessica Wilson Stone in Louisville, Ky., Dec. 27, 2012. They live in Studio City, Calif.

Thomas C. Csatari, JD, has been elected chairman of the Colby-Sawyer College Board of Trustees in New London, N.H. He is an attorney specializing in estate planning, probate administration and health care law.

Stephen Hines, MD, of Dallas reports that he received certification in hospice and palliative medicine through the American Board of Internal Medicine in December 2012.

William O'Bryan Jr., JD, of Nashville has been asked to lead the financial services litigation subgroup of Butler Snow O'Mara Stevens & Cannada law firm. He focuses his practice on general litigation, banking law, business reorganization and creditors' rights, professional liability defense, financial services and securities litigation.

Cynthia Sproehnle, BS, director of the Assessment Center at Gateway Community and Technical College, has been appointed a director of the National Council Testing Association through September 2015. A resident of Loveland, Ohio, she was elected as Gateway's staff representative to the board of directors in 2007 and re-elected to a second three-year term in 2010.

