Law360, New York (June 07, 2013, 2:25 PM ET) -- Butler Snow O'Mara Stevens & Cannada PLLC has bolstered its commercial litigation practice group by adding a former Brunini Grantham Grower Hewes PLLC partner who specializes in environmental, government contracts and securities law to its Ridgeland, Miss., office, the firm said Tuesday.

Brian C. Kimball has joined Butler Snow as a partner and will focus his practice on complex commercial litigation in state and federal courts, the firm said.

Kimball's experience includes successfully representing clients against federal agencies and litigating disputes concerning a wide variety of...
