

Leadership Mississippi announces new class

Leadership Mississippi, a program of the Mississippi Economic Council, is celebrating its 40th year and several Coastians are in its 2014 class.

The 52-member group will begin activities Thursday in Jackson. They'll travel to the Coast, Corinth, Oxford and Cleveland during their training.

More than 1,000 people active in state business and politics have graduated from the program, according to its website.

Coast participants:

- Meta C. Danzey with Butler Snow LLP in Gulfport
- Christen Duhé with Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College in Gulfport
- Mary Ann Moon with Gulf Engineers & Consultants in Gulfport
- Victoria N. Danish with the Beau Rivage Resort & Casino in Biloxi
- Susan Jacobs with Ingalls Shipbuilding in Pascagoula
- Jamie Rogers with Avon Engineered Fabrications in Picayune
- Kate Dennis Spear with Specialty Contractors & Associates in Gulfport
- Jaci Turner with the city of Pascagoula
