Law360, New York (May 21, 2014, 7:43 PM ET) -- Butler Snow has bolstered its tax, estate planning and software licensing practices with the addition of former Adams and Reese LLP counsel Joseph B. Walker as the newest partner in its Memphis office, the firm announced Wednesday.

Walker joins Butler Snow's business services group, where he will focus on wealth transfer, asset protection and estate tax planning, trust administration and probate estates, tax exempt organizations, income tax and tax planning, and information technology and software licensing transactions, the firm said.

"I wanted to be at a...
