LONDON – Ridgeland-based Butler Snow has been selected as a finalist for the 2014-2015 Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP) International Legal Team of the Year. The firm has been nominated the past two years for North American Team of the Year.

The winner will be announced at the STEP Private Client Awards on Sept. 17 at the Hilton Park Lane Hotel in London.

"We are honored that our team has been selected as a STEP finalist," Donald Clark, Jr., chairman of Butler Snow, said in a news release. "Our selection to this distinguished list is a testament not only to the expertise of our thriving tax and estate practice, but to the complex work and dedication to client service exhibited by all our attorneys firmwide."

Butler Snow's international tax practice delivers tax and estate planning advice for clients who reside outside of the U.S., but who have U.S. immigration status, U.S. family members, or U.S. investments. Additionally, Butler Snow's international tax practice assists non-U.S. and U.S.-based businesses in tax-efficient structuring of their cross-border business operations. Among other jurisdictions, the firm routinely assists clients based in the United Kingdom, Switzerland, France, Germany, Spain, Hong Kong, China, Taiwan, Indonesia, UAE and Singapore.

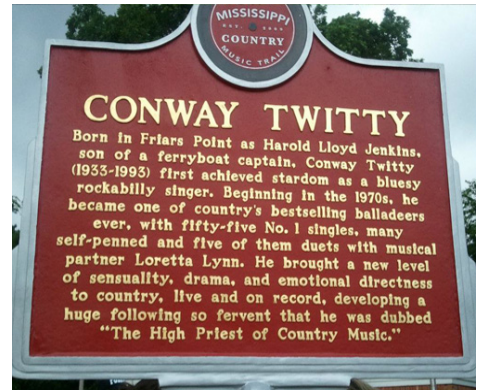

The STEP Private Client Awards highlight excellence among private client solicitors/attorneys, accountant advisers. Judges select up to five nominees as finalists in each category. A panel of experts comprised of and trust companies also take part in the selection process. Awards criteria include: demonstration of leadership including a clear vision on how the firm has and should differentiate itself in the market; merit of a wider social responsibility, including a high standard of treatment of the firm's staff.

STEP is the worldwide professional association for practitioners dealing with family inheritance and understanding of the issues families face in this area and promotes education and high professional standards members across 80 jurisdictions from a broad range of professional backgrounds, including lawyers, accountants, and other professionals.

Butler Snow is a full-service law firm with more than 280 attorneys representing local, regional, national and international clients.
